

-----
Title: Nostur'yl NO Stur'yl AQN Feature

Author: Marc Ghard
-----

Nostur'yl, NO Stur'yl
-----AQN-----
<Cesspool> Hail

<AQN> Greetings.
Well now.... While we're waiting Tell us who you are & you involvement with this quest.

<Cesspool> I am Cesspool I have traveled from Trinsic, in Trammel, to where I am now In Serpents Hold in Felucca. I have currently been standing guard at the post for many days now And in the process have met the evil demon himself many times. The first time I met him was when he Imp Kraltch came to scout out the area.

<AQN> By "Post" Are
you referring to The Obsidian Post?
<Cesspool> Aye I'm
sorry I did not specify that

<AQN> Quite alright.
please continue.

<Cesspool> His Imp
attacked us and we made quick work of
him. The demon Nostur'yl himself
appeared and warned us we would be sorry for what we had done to his scout. About an hour later he came and crushed many a warrior. We then found he had somewhat of a weakness. There were some warriors who had used deadly poison on him. His health was quickly dropping and he retreated Only to come back a minute later completely healed.

<AQN> *nods* For some of the reader who dont know whom Nostur'yl is could you maybe explain who he is, & how he came about?

<Cesspool> Ah yes, Nostur'yl is a demon who was trapped in the Abyss by the oracle. He was able to walk the lands as a shadow, or in the guise of a human mage. He was searching for 8 jewels which were what kept him imprisoned in the Abyss. He went around the world
forcing the jewels holders to one way or another give him the jewel. But when he arrived in Rivendell to claim the one there he made a deal with the mayor that he would not bother the town if they cleared Merrik, A criminal with many followers whom had committed crimes against the town of Rivendell of all his crimes. Now when the time came for the demon to depart, he demanded they hand over the gem for it was part of him. When they refused to give it to him, he kidnapped the mayor, Aleph Aries. Nostur'yl demanded a trial for Aleph. He appointed Lady Liane as the judge, and anchient wyrm. Durring the trial the Oracle was questioned, via a communication crystal. The demon asked the Oracle if there were any other way he could be released aside from collecting all 8 gems. The Oracle hesitantly replied that if she were to die, Nostur'yl would be free. Then sounds of battle could be heard over the communication crystal, And the Oracle was soon found dead. Nostur'yl then became a solid object, and was now in our realm. Shortly before he was free, Obsidan Posts were being discovered all over the world. Nostur'yl cought word of this from the leader of Ncr Smogg Azailian. Nostur'yl then sent grey colored Balrons to collect the posts. He sometimes went himself to get the posts, but he can only move 1 a day for they are extreamly heavy. The reason he seeks these Posts is that when used properly they can open a gate to the Abyss & He will use this gate to unleash all evil upon the world. He has collected 6 of them thus far & there are 8 in all. the remaining

Posts reside in Minoc and Serpents Hold.
Now we have come to the present.

<AQN> *nods*

<Cesspool> When he came himself he was unable to retrieve the post after having to retreat many times.

<AQN> What is being done to stop Nostur'yl from taking the remaining posts?

<Cesspool> We have gathered many people at the posts to block any attempts on it.
Sometimes there are near 100 people present, sometimes I am alone

<AQN> *frowns*

<Cesspool> I have found I can stand over the post and the demon cannot reach it.

<AQN> Okay, Akan
the Hermit now joins us.

<Cesspool> Ah good

Akan enters the Room

<AQN> Greetings
Akan

<Cesspool> Hail Akan

<Akan> *nods in greeting*

<AQN> Akan & Cesspool What do you plan on doing in the near future to stop Nostur'yl?

<Cesspool> Nostur'yl has met with me in private twice, and given me till next wednesday till he comes to claim the post. I have heard of a sword that will kill any openent in a single attack, but also kills the weilder, it is called the Sword of Sacrafice. I am trying to figure a way to get Lady Liane, the holder of the sword to let me have it to disperse Nostur'yl. I have yet to find an item she will trade for it.

<Akan> What about the Lantern of Illusions? I had heard that she was going to trade it for that

<Cesspool> Yes, but I know not who posesses it

<Akan> Nor do I <AQN> what is the Latern of Illusions?

<Cesspool> I know little of the Lantern <Akan> If I may answer, then?

<AQN> Go ahead

<Akan> *smiles slightly*

<Akan> From what I have discovered through research, it is a lantern made of normal metal enchanted with the ability to create not just illusions of things, but actual substantial "shadows" of them Which bear much more than the normal strength <AQN> And what use does she have with it?

<Akan> She merely wants it destroyed, I believe, but she could have a hidden agenda She is a wyrm, after all.

<AQN> *nods* And Akan, your plans for the future?

<Akan> My plans have not been altered much from my past ones. I am here to record the events for posterity. I am a historian and a journalist.

<AQN>

*nods* Well, Thank You both for taking your time to do this interview.

<Cesspool> Your
welcome

<Akan> Not much to do with Nostur'yl on my end As always, you are quite welcome

<AQN> Farewell.

<Akan> Fare Thee
Well.

<Cesspool> Good Night

-AQN Editor, Jack
Ghard